

MUSIC 1 — Musicology Elective

General characteristics of Band 2/3

Candidates at the 2/3 cut-off demonstrate basic understanding of their topic. They demonstrate some understanding of the musical concepts but at times confuse the terminology. The information is often general with only a superficial engagement with the topic. The information is sometimes inaccurate. Although these candidates include supporting examples, they often don't support the focus of the nominated topic.