

MUSIC 1 — Musicology Elective

General characteristics of Band 3/4

Candidates at the 3/4 cut-off respond to questions appropriately but not always with depth. Their information is mostly accurate, their knowledge of the concepts of music is generally sound but contains some inconsistencies. The candidates often attempt to deliver prepared responses which are generalised in nature, rather than responding to the viva voce situation. They include some appropriate supporting examples.