

MUSIC 1 — Musicology Elective

General characteristics of Band 5/6

Candidates at the 5/6 cut-off explore most musical concepts in great depth. They are able to discuss musical statements at length, using appropriate terms which are supported with examples. Their discussion is focused and relevant and the detail of their responses shows evidence of wide listening. They focus on the music with well chosen examples and, when referring to scores, clearly understand the notation.